

Campaigns

Optional

Campaigns are optional. Offers and grants can be created without a campaign.

Campaigns serve as a shared tracking identifier between the game provider and the operator.

Provider-driven use case: The provider creates a campaign as part of a promotional agreement and shares the `campaign_id` with the operator. The operator issues free rounds under it. Both parties can then reference the campaign when reconciling GGR — for example, agreeing that free rounds under a specific campaign are excluded from GGR, counted at a reduced rate, or tracked as promotional cost.

Operator-driven use case: The operator can also create campaigns independently for their own reporting — grouping free rounds by season, marketing initiative, or player segment.

Campaigns additionally support:

- Grant limits — cap the total number of grants across all offers in a campaign
- Lifecycle control — pause or end a campaign to stop new grant issuance
